

Rebecca and Grace love to explore the woods near my house. They are always creating great adventures.

Yesterday Grace called me, “Hey, can you be ready in 20 minutes? We’ve found a strange tree and we want to check it out.”

“Sure,” I replied. I grabbed my backpack and filled my water bottle.

“Hi guys,” I shouted when I saw them at the end of our street. We began walking down the path we had used many times.

“Where is this strange tree?” I asked.

“Just follow me,” said Rebecca. We came to a huge oak tree at a curve in the path. I looked closely at the holes in the trunk. Grace pointed to one particular hole and all of a sudden...

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

